

Title: Swimming breathing training methods for younger school-age children

Author: Klára Kraumanová, DiS.

Department: Physical Education Department

Supervisor: Mgr. Babeta Chrzanowska

Abstract: The present work provides a set of training methods for swimming breathing, that is designed for younger school-age children. It also provides the set of tests, that was used on selected group for proof of validity of statement, that swimming breathing is an integral part of swimming training.

Keywords: swimming breathing, basic swimming skills, swimming breathing training methods, younger school-age children